Somerset Council Member role description

Summary

Somerset Councillors represent their local communities, championing the needs and interests of residents and working to make a difference to the people, place and prosperity of their local area and Somerset as a whole. It is a position of critical importance and great responsibility, and Councillors are held to account by the full Council and by the residents they serve.

Main purpose and responsibilities

Community Leader

- To represent and provide visible leadership to local constituents, and the community of Somerset as a whole, and to balance those roles as necessary and appropriate.
- To signpost constituents, and to facilitate them in achieving appropriate support within the Council and with partners, and support constituents with day-to-day service issues.
- To engage the community of Somerset in the work we do, seeking feedback on our services and understanding the needs of residents (including young people) to enable us to deliver better services and make better decisions and also to ensure our residents know how they can influence our decisions.
- To support the development of diverse and sustainable communities who have the skills and are empowered to better help themselves.
- To proactively identify opportunities for us to improve the services we offer our residents and the people and prosperity of Somerset, balancing and respecting the needs of both urban and rural, as well as constantly striving to make the best use of public money in delivering our services in the most efficient way.

- Local Community Networks will be fundamental to how Somerset Council Members will fulfil their community leadership role, influence service delivery and advocate for local communities. LCNs will have real influence as committees of the new Council. Each Somerset Council member will have a seat on the LCN(s) for the area that their division comes within. LCNs will create across Somerset a new type of community engagement and partnership, while enabling tailored innovative services locally designed to meet the needs of present and future communities.
- Through their role on LCNs, Members will be well placed to listen to communities and work with them to harness their strengths and align the support that the council can bring to address local priorities. Members will be able to speak on behalf of and be accountable for the full range of local government services in Somerset and to argue the case for their area. They will have a key role in supporting, establishing and developing close links with other local public services, including the NHS, schools, the voluntary sector and other key partners.

Influencing and Shaping Services

- To identify opportunities for different groups to work together or partner for the benefit of our communities, including other public sector services, the private sector, the voluntary sector and community representatives.
- To work with other Members, irrespective of political allegiance, in the best interests of Somerset.
- To influence the work of the Council through positive engagement in the wide the range of avenues available to them (e.g. motions to Council, scrutiny).
- To scrutinise and challenge decision makers, acting as a critical friend, holding them to account and providing constructive feedback – maximising opportunities to reflect the voices of your community.
- To carry out the range of corporate responsibilities required of the role e.g. being a corporate parent; upholding safeguarding responsibilities; promoting equality, diversity and fairness; taking an active part in setting the Council's budget and policy framework; considering the impacts of climate change in decision making and their everyday role; explaining decisions made by the Council; attending learning and development events to support in the delivery of their role and acting as a Member of the fire authority.

- Working across Somerset to raise awareness and understanding of how public services are changing, and how that relates to Somerset's communities.

Representative, advocate and knowledge champion

- To attend and participate in meetings of the Council and its committees as appointed by the Council, the Leader or the Group Leader or relevant democratic process and to contribute constructively using their local insight and experience.
- To represent the Council, as appropriate, at Town and Parish Councils, including agreeing with them the best way to achieve positive and meaningful engagement, and identifying opportunities to support greater devolution from Somerset Council to the local councils.
- As appropriate, to represent and be an advocate of the Council on national or outside bodies and at national events.
- Foster professional and positive working relationships with officers
- Commit to continuing to develop and enhance their personal skills and knowledge throughout their term of office and encourage others to develop;
- ensure the highest standards of conduct and ethics and to comply at all times with the Council's Code of Conduct
- identify and embrace the development of new and innovative ways of doing things including new technologies, processes and working practices; and
- oversee trends and developments, both at county and national level, and ensure that these are taken into account through the Council's decision-making process.

VALUES

To be committed to and promote high standards of conduct and ethics through upholding the Principles of Public Life and complying with the Council's Code of Conduct:-

- Selflessness – to serve only the public interest and never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.
- Honesty and Integrity – to not place themselves in situations where their honesty and integrity may be questioned, to not behave improperly and avoid the appearance of such behaviour.

- Objectivity – to make decisions on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.
- Accountability – to be accountable to the public for their actions and the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities and to cooperate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to their particular office.
- Openness – to be as open as possible about their actions and those of their authority, and to be prepared to give reasons for those actions.
- Leadership – to promote and support these principles by leadership, and by example, and act in a way that secures or preserves public confidence.

To further observe the following principles:-

1. Duty to uphold the law – to uphold the law and, on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust that the public is entitled to place in them.
2. Personal judgement – to take account of the views of others, including their political groups, but to reach their own conclusions on the issues before them and act in accordance with those conclusions.
3. Respect for others – to promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. To respect the impartiality and integrity of the authority's statutory officers and its other employees. To help encourage respect between the Council and other organisations.
4. Stewardship – to do whatever they are able to do to ensure that their authorities use their resources prudently, and in accordance with the law.

Rights and Duties

- a. Members will have such rights of access to such documents, information, land and buildings of the Council as are necessary for the proper discharge of their functions and in accordance with the law.
- b. Members will not make public information which is confidential or exempt without the consent of the Council, or divulge information given in confidence to anyone other than a Member or Officer entitled to know it. For these purposes the terms "confidential" and "exempt" shall have the meanings given to them in Local Government Act 1972.

SKILLS

No specific or formal qualifications are required to be a Councillor. The most important qualification is a clear passion for improving the way we support the residents, community, businesses and local organisations of Somerset but knowledge and experience picked up through personal and professional life are important to the role. Such knowledge may include, but is not limited to, housing, regeneration, the needs of specific groups, financial and business planning, legal and regulatory procedures. All Councillors will receive support, as appropriate, to support them in delivering their role.

Equally, having, or being able to develop the following skills, knowledge and attributes will help in the delivery of the role:-

- Communication –the ability to communicate clearly both orally and in writing; to demonstrate active listening and responding; public speaking; negotiation; mediation; peaceful resolution of conflict; knowledge of common communications methods including skype, social media and creativity in delivering messages to different groups.
- Relationship building and teamwork – the ability to create and maintain positive, trusting and constructive relationships across the community including interaction with constituents, the police, health service, charities and voluntary bodies, Town and Parish Councils and Council officers.
- Problem solving and analytical skills –acting as a facilitator to enable issues to be resolved; thinking of innovative ways to resolve challenges and differences, being able to bring together different approaches or people to bring varying perspectives on issues, highlighting advantages and disadvantages of different options and acknowledging the potential friction between local and strategic priorities.
- Organisational skills – this includes workload and time management, planning activities, keeping up to date with Committee responsibilities and lines of working, making and keeping appointments and meeting deadlines.
- Information technology skills – including the ability to use email (outlook) and other software such as Microsoft Teams to receive and respond to correspondence from a range of sources and to access information on the internet.

Anticipated hours required to perform the role

National figures show that unitary Members spend on average 27 hours a week on the role. There are formal meetings you will be expected to attend, but much of the work will be in your division when constituents contact you with a problem. The work includes:

- Resolving problems raised by your constituents;
- Attending council and policy making meetings;
- Attending Town and Parish council and LCN meetings in your division;
- Representing the council on outside bodies.

Members who have additional regulatory, licensing, scrutiny or executive responsibilities or other special responsibilities will be expected to work additional hours.

The time unitary Members will need to carry out the role will depend on many things:

- If you have lots of meetings to attend, you are likely to spend more time travelling;
- If you are a new Member you will have to spend a lot of time being trained to enable you to carry out the role;
- If you have a particular interest you may choose to become more involved in committees associated with these matters;
- If there are important or controversial issues in your division, they may occupy a lot of your time.

2. To undertake the role of and assume the responsibilities of the Leader in the absence of the Leader or where the Leader is unable to act.
3. To establish effective working relationships with Senior Leadership Team officers and, as appropriate, other staff.

Leader of an Opposition Political Group

Purpose of the Post

The purpose of the statutory requirement to designate a Group Leader is to identify and publicise a member of the Group to act as a focal point for the Group and its activities.

Key responsibilities

1. To ensure that the political group sets their expectations of the Group Leader and that those expectations are delivered.
2. To provide political direction and leadership to their group of Members, setting standards and expectations and encouraging Members to play a full part in the running of the Council and being effective community leaders.
3. Together with other opposition group leaders, to support the democratic process by ensuring that the activities of the administration are examined and, where considered necessary, challenged.
4. To provide support and advice to any members of the Group who are Chairs or Vice-Chairs of Committees.
5. When appropriate, to bring forward alternatives to policies or operational decisions proposed by the Administration.
6. To liaise with the Leader of any other political group in opposition on the Council.
7. To establish effective working relationships with the Leader of Council and the Chair of the Council and its Committees.
8. To establish effective working relationships with Senior Leadership Team officers and, as appropriate, other staff.

Opposition Group Spokespersons

Purpose

These posts are held by members of the largest Opposition Political Group on the Council. The sphere of interest of each corresponds with that of a Lead Member. The primary role of the post is to provide an effective political counter-balance to the role of the Lead Member.

Key responsibilities

In respect of the service area(s) for which the post-holder has an interest:

1. To develop expertise and knowledge.
2. To provide political focus and leadership within the Group's membership.
3. To be the Group's lead spokesperson and 'first' political contact for other Members of Council, the public, press and Officers.
4. To lead the development of approaches to policy and operational approaches on behalf of the Group and to present them at member-level meetings, as appropriate.
5. To be aware of policies being developed and decisions being taken by the Administration, including those taken by individual Lead Members, and to challenge/contribute to them as necessary via mechanisms provided for in the Constitution.
6. To keep members of the Group informed.
7. To establish and maintain effective working relationships with Senior Leadership Team officers and other Officers.
8. To establish appropriate contacts with other bodies and with individuals to exchange views and information.
