PQ3	Mr David Redgewell	South West Transport Network	What is the county council doing as the public transport Authority to promote Bus services ,coaches and trains services this summer across the Historic county of Somerset and South West England to residents and Tourists - to such centres as Burnham on Sea, Taunton Minehead ,Watchet Wells ,Glastonbury Street, Yeovil, Bath ,Bristol Frome and Cheddar and Weston Super Mare; and Sunday bus service to Cheddar from Weston Super Mare and Wells bus station? Working jointly with the public transport companies such as First group buses and trains, stagecoach, National Express coaches, Megabus Falcon and Flexibus Berry coaches, and local operators and west Somerset railway.
PQ	From	Topic	Question/Statement
PQ4	Mr Alan Debenham	Democracy	(1) Democracy, measured by the amount of active engagement in government of the people at large, from the lowest level upwards - not the reverse - has become a big thing worth fighting for again, both in Ukraine and at home. Once again in local elections the turnout of registered voters ranged from about 25 % to 45% with the average in SWaT being 38.7%, with 43.2% in the Taunton Division where I was a Green Party candidate. In SWaT's parish and town elections the democracy picture was even bleaker, although much the same as in 2017, resting at the unbelievable figure again of less than 10% actually managing to drum-up enough democratic urge to have a contested election at all. In other words, the "don't vote" and "don't be a candidate" democracy wreckers have clearly won at all levels once again. Bearing in mind the big democratic deficit conjured-up in the enormous reduction in total frontline Councillors for the new Somerset Council (from 269 to 110), myself and many others are extremely interested in:- How and what will the new Liberal DEMOCRAT Council do to radically improve this pathetic state of democracy which currently exists throughout Somerset?

PQ5	Mr Alan Debenham	Council administration	Now we have the great news for Somerset Council of a return to control by the Liberal Democrats, when can us green democrats, if at all, expect, a return to the former much fairer (both for all councillors and voters), more efficient and easily understood, system of Council administration, comprised of a power-shared top Executive Management Committee, plus power-shared, spending 'Services Committees' underneath it, simultaneously getting rid of ineffectual so-called 'Scrutiny' committees and any 'Mayors' with executive, rather than ceremonial, roles?
