Analysis of impact on protected groups

The Public Sector Equality Duty requires us to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations with protected groups. Consider how this policy/service will achieve these aims. In the table below, using the evidence outlined above and your own understanding, detail what considerations and potential impacts against each of the three aims of the Public Sector Equality Duty. Based on this information, make an assessment of the likely outcome, before you have implemented any mitigation.

Protected group	Summary of impact	Negative outcome	Neutral outcome	Positive outcome
Age	<ul> <li>FPN's will directly affect people who are caught littering, FPNs' will not be issued to individuals under the age of 18.</li> <li>Our services are based on guidance, legislation and written policy and are provided to all regardless of a person's age.</li> </ul>
Disability	<ul> <li>When communicating on enforcement issues there is the potential that a person has not understood what is expected of them or the consequences of not complying with what has been required, as a result of their disability.</li> <li>It is important to make sure that people have understood what is required of them, the consequences of not taking action and that assistance can be provided where appropriate.</li> </ul>
Gender reassignment	• There are not considered to be any adverse impact regarding gender reassignment. The issuing of FPN's is based on guidance, legislation and written policy and can be issued to all regardless of gender.
