

Part F - Joint Arrangements

Arrangements to promote wellbeing

The Council, in order to promote the economic, social or environmental well-being of its area, may

- (a) enter into arrangements or agreements with any person or body
- (b) co-operate with or facilitate or co-ordinate the activities of, any person or body and
- (c) exercise on behalf of that person or body any functions of that person or body

Joint arrangements

(a) The Full Council may establish joint arrangements with one or more local authorities and / or their executives to exercise functions that are not executive functions in any of the participating authorities or advise the Full Council. Such arrangements may involve the appointment of a joint committee with these other local authorities.

(b) The Executive may establish joint arrangements with one or more local authorities to exercise functions that are executive functions. Such arrangements may involve the appointment of joint committees with these other local authorities.

Delegation to and from other local authorities

(a) The Council may delegate some functions to another local authority or, in certain circumstances, the executive of another local authority.

(b) the decision whether or not to accept such service delegations from another local authority is reserved to the Council meeting.

Contracting out

The Council may contract out to another body or organisation functions which may be exercised by an officer, and which are subject to an order under section 70 of the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994, or under contracting arrangements where the contractor acts as the Council's agent under usual contracting principles.

The Council has established joint arrangements in respect of the following:
